

PHINMA ENERGY CORPORATION
CHARTER OF THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS

Section 1: INTRODUCTION

The Board of Directors of PHINMA ENERGY CORPORATION (the “Company”) is the governing body of the Company elected by the stockholders and mandated by law to exclusively exercise the powers of the corporation, conduct all its business and control its properties. The Board is the ultimate authority in the Company in matters of governance and in managing the corporate business. The Board, acting as a Board, has full power and authority to manage the business of the Company and to exercise their best business judgment consistent with the fiduciary duties of the Board and its members.

This Charter of the Board of PHINMA Energy Corporation formalizes and clearly states its roles, responsibilities and accountabilities in carrying out the fiduciary duties of the Board. This Charter is adopted to serve as a guide to the directors in the performance of their functions as such.

This Charter supplements and complements, and does not supersede, the Company’s Articles of Incorporation and By-Laws, the Corporation Code of the Philippines, and relevant rules, regulations, and policies promulgated by competent government authority, among them the Code of Corporate Governance for Publicly Listed Companies (Memorandum Circular No. 19, Series of 2016), promulgated by the Securities and Exchange Commission (“SEC”) and succeeding Codes.

Section 2: COMPOSITION OF THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS

2.1. Number of Directors

The Board shall be composed of at least five (5), but not more than fifteen (15) members and shall have at least three (3) independent directors, or such number as to constitute at least one-third of the members of the Board,

Further, the board shall include non-executive directors who possess the necessary qualifications to effectively participate and help secure objective, independent judgment on corporate affairs and to substantiate proper checks and balances whichever is higher

2.2. Board competency

The Board shall be composed of directors with a collective working knowledge, experience or expertise that is relevant to the Company’s industry/sector, with an appropriate mix of competence and expertise, each of whom can add value and independent judgment in the formulation of sound corporate strategies. Its members shall remain qualified for their positions individually and collectively, to enable it to fulfil its roles and responsibilities and respond to the needs of the organization based on the evolving business environment and strategic direction.

Each director must possess the necessary qualifications to effectively participate in, and help secure independent judgment on corporate affairs and to provide proper checks and balances.

2.3. Board diversity

Directors are elected on the basis of merit. Within that key principle of merit, there shall be diversity among the members of the Board as to gender, age, ethnicity, background, skills and business.

2.4. Qualifications and Disqualifications of Directors

The qualifications and disqualifications for election to the Board of Directors are set forth in the Company's Manual on Good Corporate Governance.

2.5. Independent Directors

The Board shall have at least three (3) Independent Directors, or such number of Independent Directors as may be consistent with law. To be considered independent, a Director shall be independent of management and the controlling shareholder, and is free from any business or other relationship which could, or could reasonably be perceived to, materially interfere with his exercise of independent judgment in carrying out his responsibilities as a director.

Section 3: Directors' Term of Office; Term Limits for Independent Directors

- 3.1. Directors shall hold office for a term of one (1) year, immediately upon their election and until their successors shall have been duly elected and qualified in accordance with the By-Laws of the Corporation and the Corporation Code.
- 3.2. Independent Directors shall serve for a maximum cumulative term of nine (9) years, reckoned in accordance with the pertinent rules of the SEC, after which the Independent Director shall be perpetually barred from re-election as such in the Company, but may continue to qualify for nomination and election as a non-independent director.

In the instance that the Board in its best judgment believes that it is beneficial to the Company to retain an Independent Director who has served for nine years, the Board shall provide meritorious justification/s and seek shareholders' approval during the annual shareholders' meeting.

Section 4: Duties and Responsibilities of the Board

General responsibilities of the Board and directors

- 4.1. The Board shall exercise the corporate powers, conduct the business, and control the properties of the Company and shall be responsible for fostering the long-term success of the Company and securing its sustained competitiveness in a manner consistent with its corporate objectives and the best interests of its stockholders and other stakeholders.
- 4.2. Consistent with the director's three-fold duty of obedience, diligence and loyalty to the Company, a director shall:

- a) Act within the scope of power and authority of the Company and the Board as prescribed in the Articles of Incorporation, By-Laws, and in existing laws, rules and regulations;
- b) Exercise the best care, skill and judgment, and observe utmost good faith in the conduct and management of the business and affairs of the Company; and,
- c) Act in the best interest of the Company and for the common benefit of the Company's stockholders and other stakeholders.

The Board, in coordination with Management, shall identify the Company's stakeholders in the community in which it operates or are directly affected by its operations and formulate a clear policy of accurate, timely and effective communication with them;
- r) Ensure that the Company establishes appropriate governance policies and procedures pursuant to the Company's Manual of Corporate Governance, including, but not limited to, policies on conflict of interest and related party transactions, and oversee the effective implementation thereof;
- s) Establish and maintain an alternative dispute resolution system in the Company that can, where practicable or feasible, amicably settle conflicts or difference between the Company and its stockholders and the Company and third parties, including regulatory authorities;
- t) Promote social responsibility initiatives, with specific focus on community development, social progress, and environmental management, in accordance with all pertinent Philippine laws, rules and regulations;

- u) Adopt a globally-recognized standard or framework in reporting non-financial information, with emphasis on the management of economic, environmental, social and governance (EESG) issues of its business, which underpin sustainability;
- v) Adopt a Code of Business Conduct and Ethics and oversee effective compliance.

4.4. Specific Duties and Responsibilities of a Director

A Director should act in a manner characterized by integrity, transparency, accountability and fairness. Consistent with this, a Director shall:

- a) Conduct business transactions with the Company fairly. He shall ensure that his personal interest does not conflict with the interests of the Company or affect his independent judgment and the Board's decisions, and fully and immediately disclose an actual or potential conflict of interest that may arise;
- b) Devote the time and attention necessary to properly and effectively discharge his fiduciary duties and responsibilities;
- c) Act judiciously on matters brought before the Board, thoroughly evaluating the issues involved before making any decision;
- d) Exercise independent judgment;
- e) Have a working knowledge of the statutory and regulatory requirements that affect the Company and its operations, including the provisions of the Company's Articles and By-Laws, the requirements of the SEC and other regulatory agencies having jurisdiction over the Company, and keep abreast with industry developments and business trends; and,
